

» BECAUSE THE CONSEQUENCES AREN'T MINOR «

Publications Request

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Organization and Title (if applicable): _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Fax: _____

- DO NOT send me CFYJ's monthly e-newsletter (which discusses recent research and events related to youth in the adult criminal justice system)
- DO NOT send me CFYJ's weekly news roundup (a sampling of each week's news stories related to the prosecution of youth as adults)

Please send me (check all that apply and fill in quantity):

- Jailing Juveniles: The Dangers of Incarcerating Youth in Adult Jails in America. Released in November 2007, a national report presenting the latest research on youth in U.S. jails and the risks they face. Quantity: _____
- The Consequences Aren't Minor: The Impact of Trying Youth as Adults and Strategies for Reform. Released in March 2007, a national report on the issue of transfer/waiver of youth to the adult criminal court. Quantity: _____
- "Childhood Interrupted" A short, informative DVD and discussion guide about the practice of trying youth in the adult system. Quantity: _____
- A Capital Offense: Youth in DC's Adult Criminal Justice System and Strategies for Reform. A study of the status of children prosecuted in the adult criminal justice system in the District of Columbia which calls for an end to pre-trial placement of youth in the DC Jail. Quantity: _____
- A Tangled Web of Justice: American Indian and Alaska Native Youth in Federal, State, and Tribal Justice Systems. A policy brief discussing the issues Native youth face in federal, state, and tribal justice systems and promising solutions and recommendations for policymakers and juvenile justice professionals. Quantity: _____
- Critical Condition: African American Youth in the Justice System. A policy brief analyzing disproportionate contact, conviction, and use of punitive sentencing for black youth in the juvenile and adult justice systems. Quantity: _____
- Return Them to Juvenile Court. A policy brief encouraging decision-makers, juvenile justice officials, and concerned citizens to discard or modify policies that allow youth to be handled in adult criminal courts, rather than juvenile courts. Only available online at: <http://cfyj.org/Downloads/KeyResearch/MoreKeyResearch/AdultificationPolicyBriefVol1.pdf>.
- Youth Transferred to Adult Court: Racial Disparities. A policy brief that examines the extent to which transfer laws are disproportionately applied to youth of color and suggests directions for future research on racial disparities among youth tried as adults. Quantity: _____
- Children Tried as Adults. A policy brief summarizing the statutory law and protections provided in each state regarding the pretrial detention of children being tried as adults. Quantity: _____
- Perpetual Punishment: The Consequences of Adult Convictions for Youth. A policy brief examining the life-long consequences that adult arrests and/or convictions place on youthful offenders. Quantity: _____

1012 14th Street NW, Suite 610 | Washington DC 20005 | ph: 202.558.3580 | fax: 202.386.9807 | info@campaign4youthjustice.org

» www.campaignforyouthjustice.org